LAGCOE Career Development & Networking Expo to provide networking opportunities and job search tips as part of LAGCOE Education & Innovation Summit

LAFAYETTE, LA –LAGCOE will host the Career Development and Networking Expo at the Cajundome Convention Center on Thursday, October 27 from 9:00 a.m. to noon. The Expo which aims to provide those entering or re-entering the energy industry with guidance on building a resume, interviewing professionally, effective networking, and more is free to attend and open to the public.

Presented by the Daily Advertiser, the career development event is one part of the LAGCOE Education & Innovation Summit going on October 26-27. Over the course of the two-day Summit, LAGCOE will also host a student research competition, the Energy Innovators Pitch Challenge, and the Life of a Well luncheon.

“This event will be a one-stop shop for energy professionals seeking valuable networking opportunities,” said Angela Cring, LAGCOE’s Executive Director. “The Summit as a whole will bring together people from all corners of the industry. The Career Development and Networking Expo will focus on helping professionals develop an effective job search strategy with insider tips from industry HR professionals.”

During the Expo, attendees will choose which workshops to attend from several options, offering a well-rounded day of training for those in search of their next career opportunity. Led by human resource professionals, session topics will include Using LinkedIn Effectively, Interviewing with a Potential Employer, and Building a Strong Resume. In addition, a panel of energy industry human resource professionals at different stages in their careers and from various sized companies will answer questions about their successes and discuss how to address challenges with how the hiring process works.

Resume review stations will be set up with human resource professionals on hand to provide advice and tips. Participants are encouraged to bring at least one copy of their resume to take advantage of this offering. Business casual to professional dress is preferred. The Career Development & Networking Expo is free to attend, but registration is required.
